

some form of financial assistance in 1987-88, including University grants and scholarships, government grants and loans, student employment and state grants.

G is for golf balls. The 10 members of the 1987-88 golf team used about 600 last year, the same year they finished second in the Colonial Athletic Association tournament .

H is for horns. The Music Department has 40 horns available for student lessons and performance, including French horns, trumpets, tubas, trombones, cornets and baritones.

McCrea, its benefactor, the scholarship is for a worthy Westhampton College or Richmond College student.

N is for North Court. One of the original buildings on campus, North Court houses women students, faculty offices and classrooms. It was extensively renovated in the summer of 1988.

O is for Oldham Scholars. This prestigious four-year merit scholarship provides full tuition, room and board and other benefits. The scholarships are made possible by a gift from Dortch, R'41, H'74, and Sis, W'41, Oldham.

H is for horns. There are 40 of them available in the music department.